

Ps. Paul Betiku

Ps. Sam Nero

UNITY THAT IMPACTS COMMUNITIES

SATURDAY . NOVEMBER 1 . 2008

REVIVAL and TRAINING CENTER

5801 JOHN MARTIN DRIVE . BROOKLYN CENTER . MN

763.535.4104

www.faithcommunitycac.com

Featuring many Great Speakers from the Church and Community

Paul Jones

Kimberly Devries

Ps. Brian Herron

Ps. Bob Pullar

Doug Stanton

Robin Martinson

Dr. Herb Klem

H C Shin

Kerper Dwanyen

Larry Kutzler

9:00 Registration
 9:30 Worship
 9:45 Welcome, Conference Vision & Prayer
 10:00 "What is Community?"
 11:15 Break
 11:30 "What are the Needs in the Community?"
 12:30 Lunch (Music will begin at 1:15 p.m.)

1:30 "What Programs are Working?"
 2:30 Break
 2:45 Panel Discussion
 4:00 Dinner
 6:30 Worship & Final Session: "Call to Action"

$15 for Day Sessions
Evening Session FREE

... that they all may be one

John 17:21

Brooklyn Center Mayor
Tim Willson

Paul Betiku: born in Idanre in Ondo State, Nigeria. He graduated from C.A.C. Bible School in Nigeria. In 1980 he migrated to the United States and attended North Central University in Minneapolis. He started Faith Community Church, a non-denominational Evangelical multi-cultural church in the Twin Cities. Paul has led many short-term mission trips to Nigeria and other African countries. Where he organized and held many revival meetings. Paul and his wife Cecilia have three children and live in Crystal.

Larry Kutzler: married to Paulette Kutzler of KTIS radio, has two grown children. He's been a pastor for over 27 years and has earned Master of Divinity degree from Bethel Seminary. 11 years he spent planting churches in the inner city of Minneapolis and St Paul. Larry left the pastorate in 2002 to become the founder and Executive Director of CitySites Media, a ministry that focuses on using media to share the gospel using the specialty of art audio and video presentations for churches and non-profit ministries.

Paul D. Jones: a Minneapolis-based businessman, entrepreneur and motivational speaker have devoted his time to educating the public about life's finances and increasing wealth. He's a God-made millionaire; He credits his success to his incredible determination and faith. Paul has core values upon which his companies thrive. He runs all of his businesses with the PS BRITE standard: Passion, Success, Belief, Respect, Integrity, Team, and Excellence.

Kerper A. Dwanyen: Born June 10, 1959 – Bahn, Nimba County, Liberia. Professional background encompasses financial planning, investment banking, and mortgage banking. He is the present president, Organization of Liberians in Minnesota.

Hak Cheol (H.C.) Shin: born August 18, 1957 in Chungju, South Korea. Graduated from Seoul National University with a Mechanical Engineering degree in 1980 and he's currently the Executive Vice President, Industrial and Transportation Business.

HERBERT V. KLEM: Retired in 2002 as a Professor of Missions, Bethel Theological Seminary, St. Paul, Minnesota. Dr. Klem is recognized for his expertise in the oral communication of Scripture and has maintained an interest in reconciliation studies and African Theologies. He serves as consultant and workshop leader in the areas of world missions, church communications, African oral art, ethnic reconciliation and evangelism.

Kimberly DeVries: Singer, pianist, composer, conductor, music teacher at Calvin Christian School and worship leader. She has been involved in worship for a number of years at various churches and denominations in the greater Minneapolis metro area. Her passion is for worship that is done "in Spirit and in Truth", that ultimately brings people into the intimate presence of the Lord. Kimberly lives in Eden Prairie with her husband, Brian, and two children, Elyse and Anna.

Doug Stanton: is a minister of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. His ministry focuses on loving God and walking in the newness of life that He offers us through His Beloved Son. Doug's goal is to help people understand the power and freedom offered to us when Jesus died for us on the cross. His teaching and ministry leads us to a place in life where we can love Jesus more than anything else.

Mayor Tim Willson: has been the Mayor for the City of Brooklyn Center since January 2007. He currently serves as the President of the Economic Development Authority (EDA) and is the Chair of the Housing Redevelopment Authority (HRA). Mr. Willson has been actively involved with city government for more than 16 years.

Robin Martinson: is a Career Probation Officer currently working at the Brooklyn Park Police Department as a Community Liaison. Her job is working primarily with the immigrant and refugee populations in Brooklyn Park. In her current position she works to build bridges between the New American Communities and the Police Department. She has worked for Hennepin County for the past 27 years and has held a variety of jobs in Community Corrections

Bob Pullar: has over 25 years of ministry experience in the Elk River Community. In 1991 he worked with a team to establish Living Waters Church. As a Pastor he has worked to help promote unity between churches and the marketplace. He recently released the Pastorate of Living Waters to his Associate Dave Weigel so that he might better serve the Elk River community. Bob, and his wife Marci, have joined forces with Chuck and Kathi Ripka in the establishment of Rivercenter; a ministry resource center that is dedicated to serving the city for the sake of bringing transformation to the Elk River region and beyond.

Pastor Sam Nero: is pastor of Church of New Life Christian Ministries. He was born in Clinton, LA—the 14th of 16 children. He was raised in a Christian home by both parents and gave his life to the Lord at age 13. He attended Southern University and graduated with a degree in Electronic Engineering. He moved to Minnesota in 1973 and as an electrical engineer for Honeywell and later Control Data. What never left him was his compassion for God that he had from his youth. Pastor Sam is a member of Association of Faith Churches and Ministries and serves on the board of many organizations.

Pastor Brian Curtis Herron: Brian began working with the Greater Minneapolis Council of Churches in 2003 to develop a program to help people transition back into the community from institutions of incarceration. The program, Community Justice Project, works in partnership with the faith community, setting up support for individuals in the way of mentors as well as connecting them to projects and programs that will ease their transition back and help them overcome the barriers that are ever present so that they can truly become productive and not end up returning back to prison.

Driving directions to

The Revival & Training Center.

5801 John Martin Drive, Brooklyn Center, MN.

From the south, take Hwy 100 north to John Martin Drive. Follow the signs to go across 100. There is a Perkins at a near corner. Turn left, and look for our sign on the white building at the end of the parking lot.

If you need to be dropped off at the front door, there is a drive-around past the large glass doors.

From the west, north, or east, take Hwy 694 to Shingle Creek Parkway. Follow the parkway south to John Martin Drive. Turn left to Perkins, and then right toward the Revival Center. Look for our sign on the white building at the end of the parking lot.